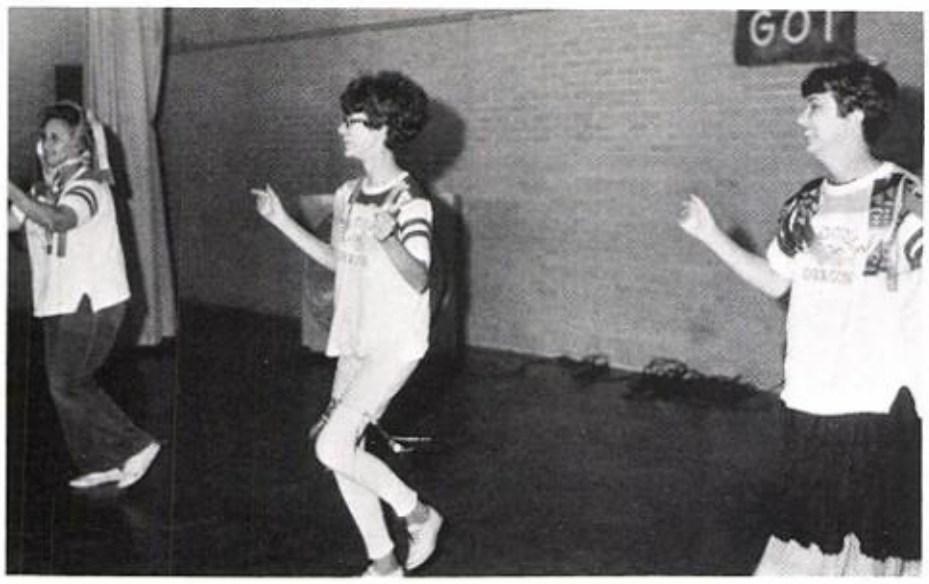
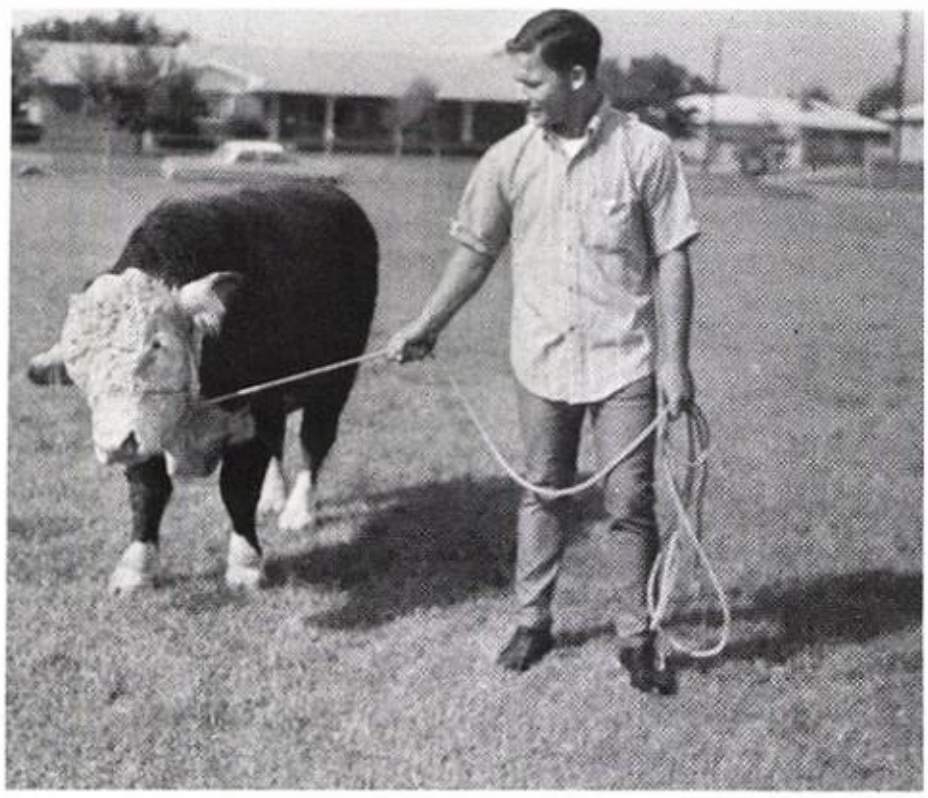
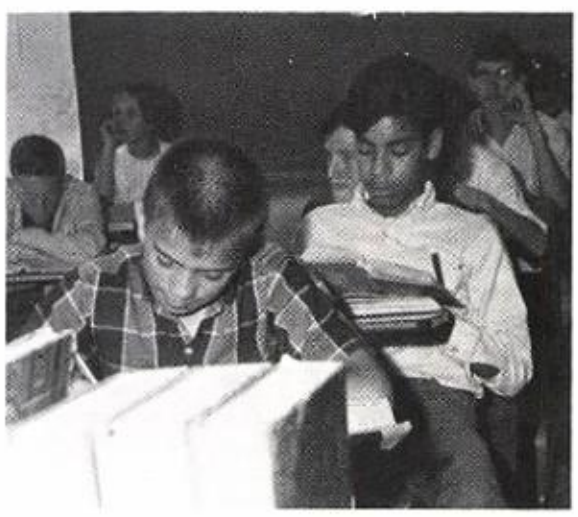
Loyalty . . .

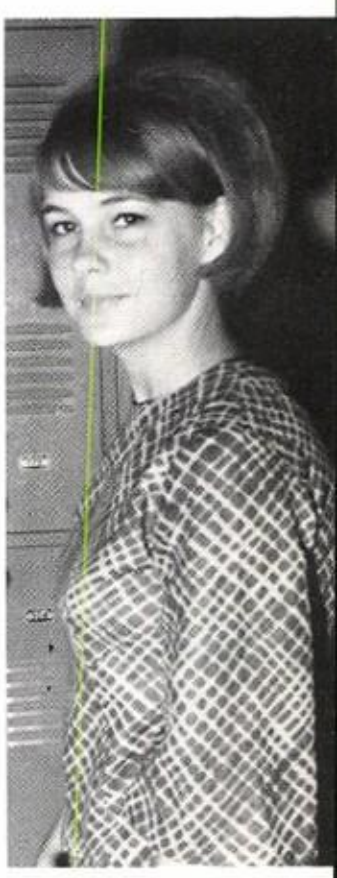
Seagoville High School is an edifice of weathered brick, time-worn wood, and rain-stained concrete. Through the years hundreds of students have walked its halls, sat in many desks, and enjoyed the warmth of high school friendships keeping the feeling of Loyalty to one's school alive while kindling new sparks to light the way for future classes. Each in his own way has added to the heritage of S.H.S. while growing in knowledge, understanding, and maturity. At S.H.S. Loyalty is a way of life.

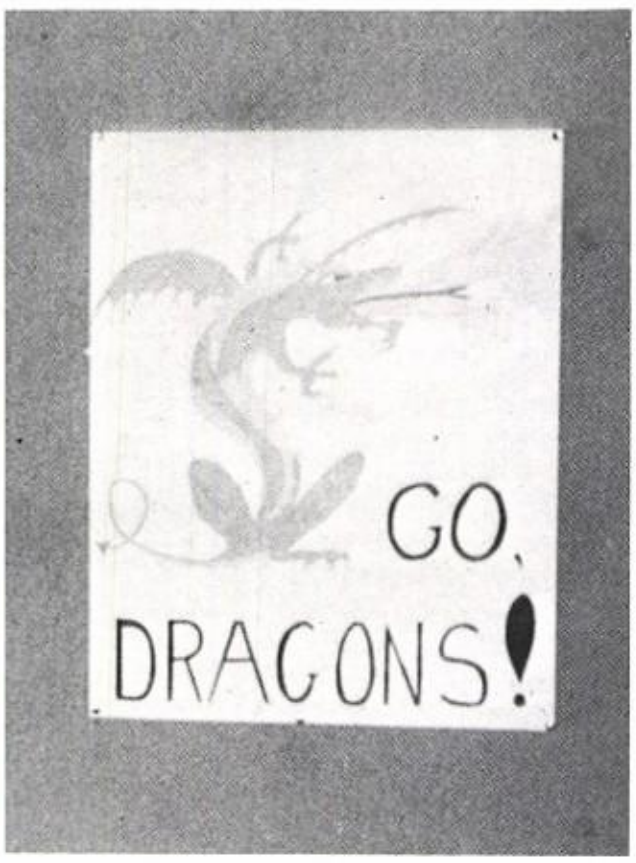


GO!









GO,

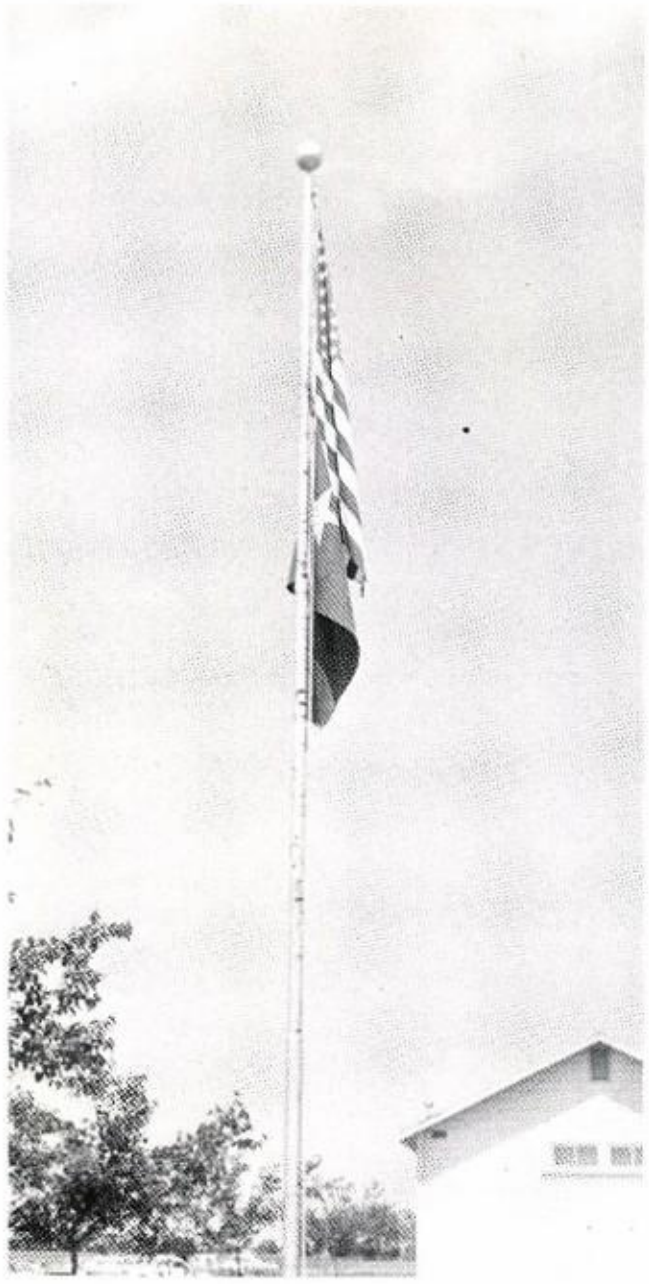
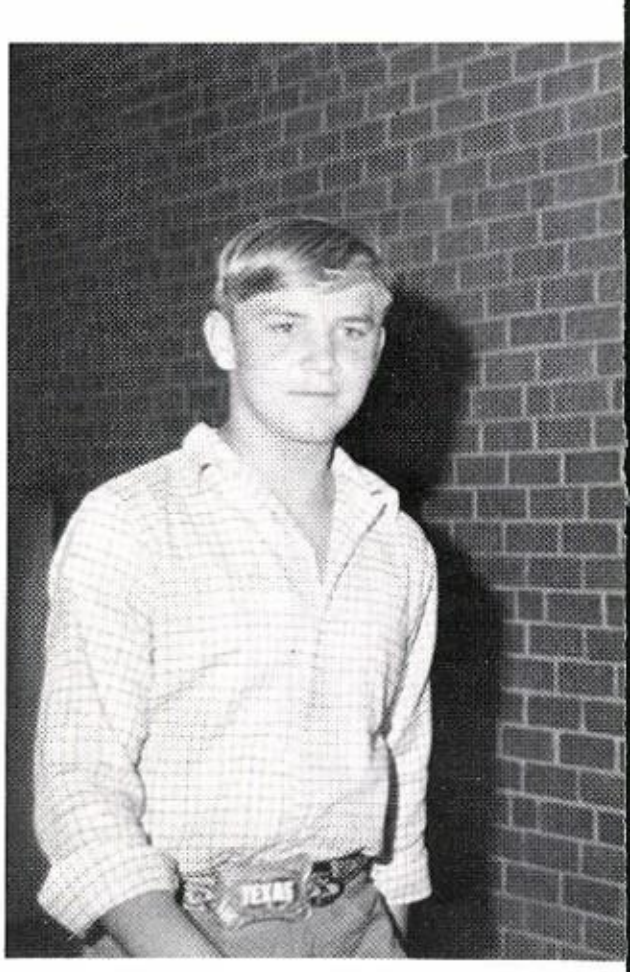
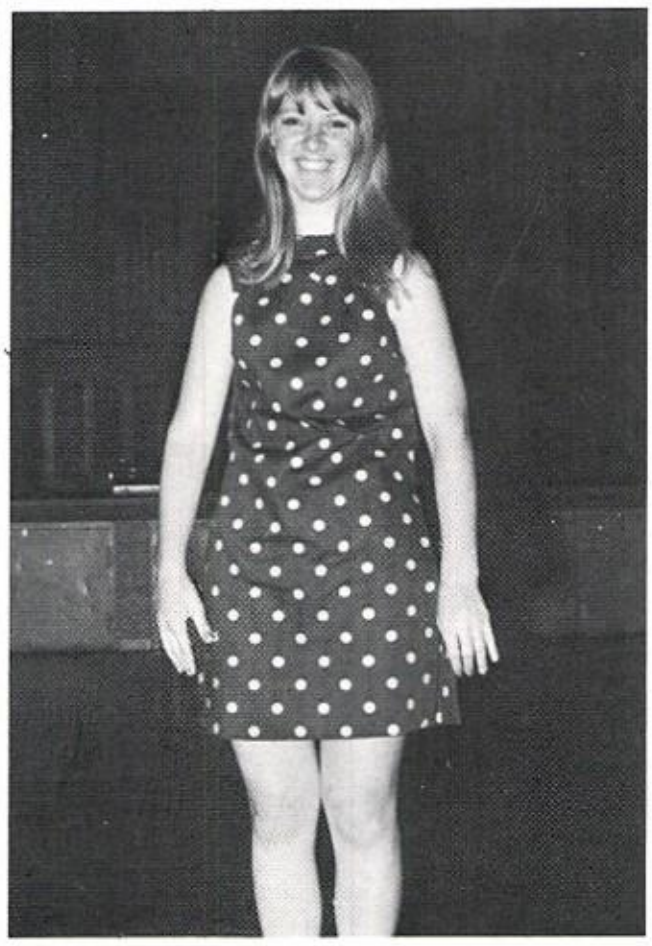
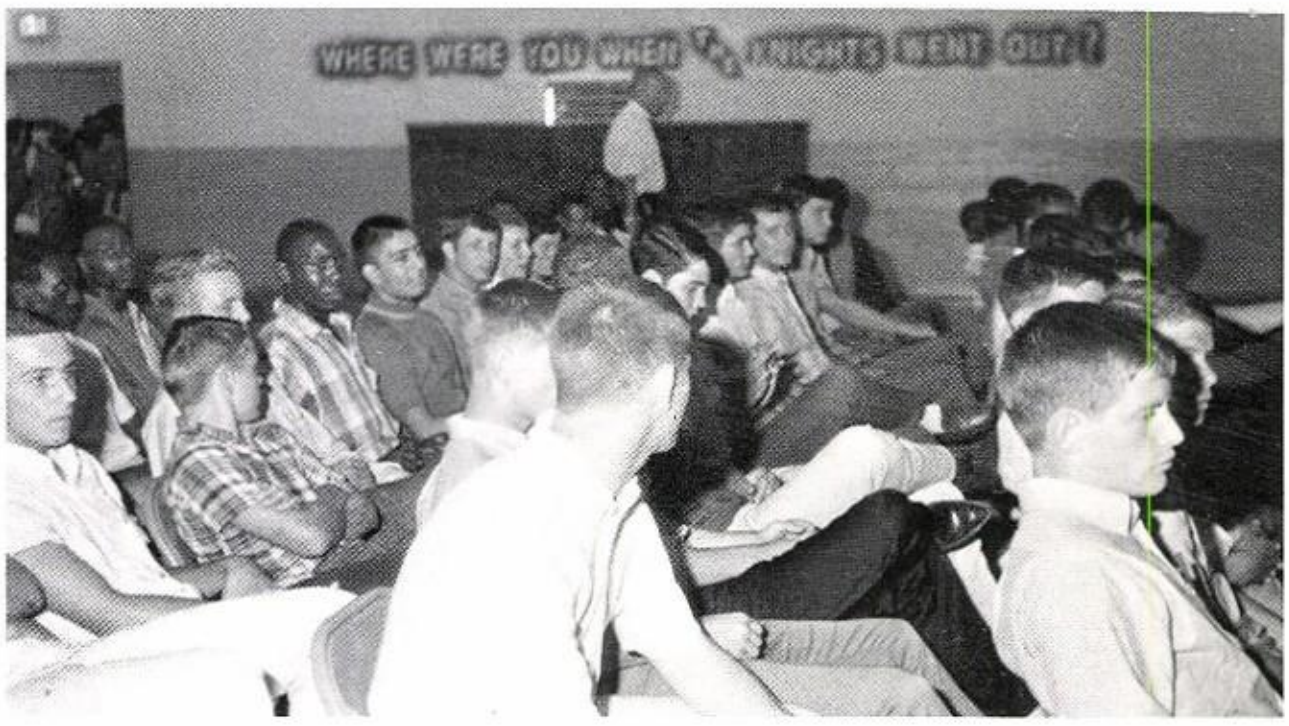
organizations that
to our school.

All who are a part of S.H.S. and comprise a part of its Loyalty however great or small, carry this part with them when they leave. Hopefully, they are better human beings for this part they have played in Seagoville's history.









All who visit SHS, however brief, or come in contact with its representatives cannot easily forget the impression their Loyalty made upon them. Our Loyalty is forever leaving its mark.

Mary Carter

"All right! Break clean and come out fighting."

Dedication

Words cannot express the respect and gratitude the student body of Seagoville High School has for a woman who has been both a teacher and a friend. We feel that our insight has been deepened and our knowledge magnified by one who will forever remain in our memories. We are confident that each of us will be a better person for having known and worked under the guidance of this wonderful person. Therefore, we, the Spirit Staff of 1969, wish to dedicate this yearbook to Miss Mary Carter.

Principal – John R. Ligon

Dear Students,

As this year draws to a close, search your hearts to rediscover those things which give meaning to your life at Seagoville. Some will remain, for one reason or another, vivid in your memories. Others will grow in significance with the passage of time. These we call endearing values - qualities such as honesty, courage, perseverance, justice, and respect.

Your education, whether in school or out, is just beginning. It is a process which will continue throughout your lives. Choose wisely in the decisions which you make, for each will help fashion your most priceless possession, your character.

Remember, too, that every man and woman dreams of doing some great and good deeds. We dream of the big things and often fail to do the little things. Try to do some of the little things we can do each day to make this world a more joyous place in which to live. Finally, may I wish for each of you the happiness and satisfaction for which you seek.

Sincerely

John R. Ligon

Asst. Principal – Charles Blanton

Dear Students,

As predicted last September, this has truly been the "Year of the Dragon". It is fitting that this has been the case since every graduating class is entitled to important memories of its high school days. Because of the contributions made to our school by the class of 68-69, its members are especially deserving of these rewards.

Every student who attends any high school at any time is constantly presented with opportunities to contribute to his school, but this has been especially true of this year's seniors in our approach of the "School of Tomorrow."

Those of us who have watched this development of true "Student Power" gratefully acknowledge the leadership of the Dragons of 1969 and wish for them the best that life has to offer.

Sports

To brag a little, to lose well,

To crow gently, if in luck.

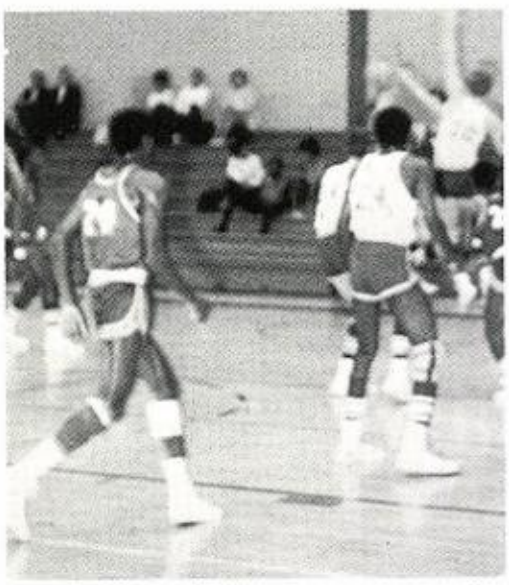
To pay up, to own up,
To shutup if beaten!

Are the virtues of a sporting man.



Few of us are faster than a speeding bullet, more powerful than a locomotive, or able to leap tall hurdles at a single bound; we are not supermen, but sportsmen. We play to win, but even more important, just because we love too!

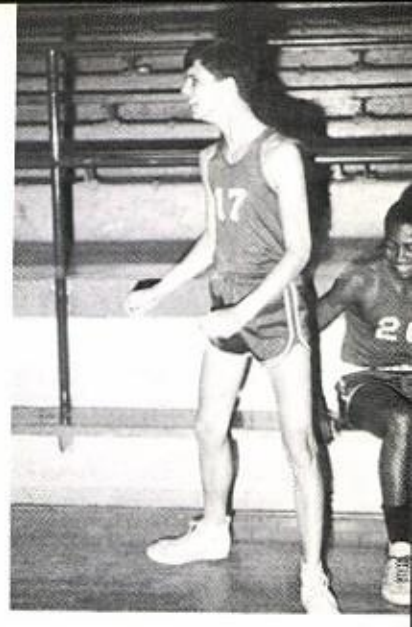
What does this mean? Greetings, from your President?



Would support hose help?

Our Seniors are alert!!

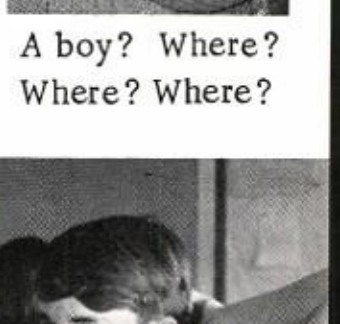
Detentions!!

Here we see some of the Seniors of the class of 1970. (That is if they are lucky.)

Wait til they see their test grades!

We just can't believe it. Not one of this group was nominated for an oscar!

If only I'd stayed home!!!



A boy? Where? Where? Where?

Lunchtime! On you mark, get set, GO!

Marsha reads about the Bobsey Twins!

Cute aren't they?

I use Ban! Don't you wish everyone did?

Two con-men at work! Their specialty!

Free food? Where?

Spider? Where?

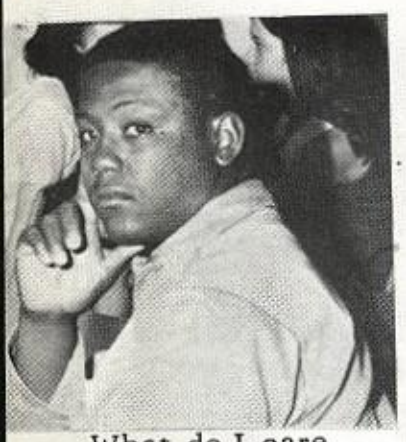
The Keyboard's missing!!!

Oops! My Polident is losing its grip!!

Look ma! No cavities!!!

No wonder Connie moved down some!!

Larry swears this started out to be a shoe shine kit



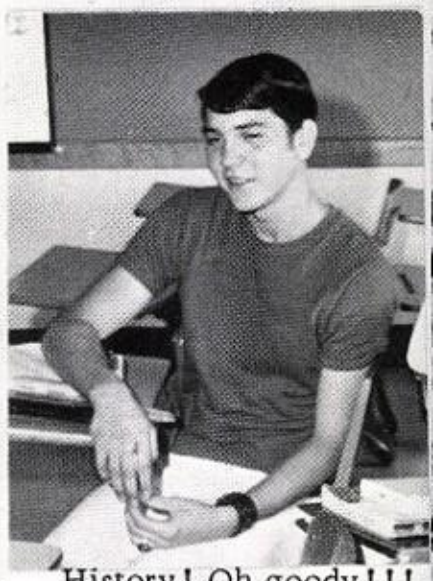
What do I care about who killed Macbeth?

My My, Martie, such typing. "See Spot." "See Spot run. Look."

Beauty or the beast???

Mario moves right along while Steve ponders 2 plus 2!

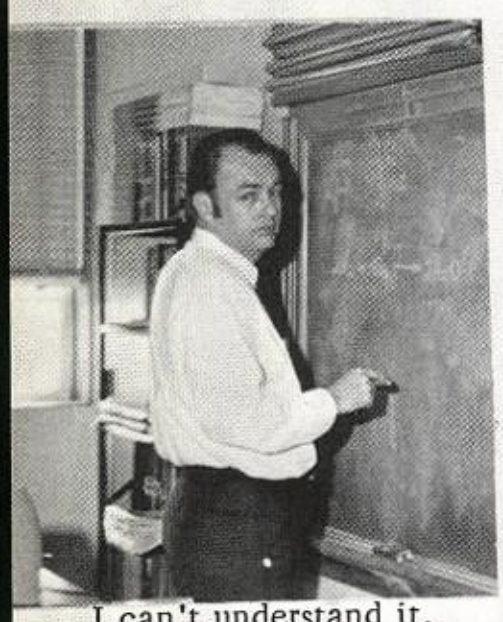
Krista on her way to see about grades!



History! Oh goody!!!

How did this cake get so hard?

Oh me! A Senior surrounded by juniors SOS! SOS! SOS! SOS!



I can't understand it. Somewhere I must have misplaced an atom!

This many minutes???

Margaret's happy???

Transplants in the clinic not this year but soon!

Another day in the life of our counselor!

Let's go swing!

He did. And he fell off! Pain! Pain! Pain!

Why is A&M so far away???

Someone dropped water on the daily roll

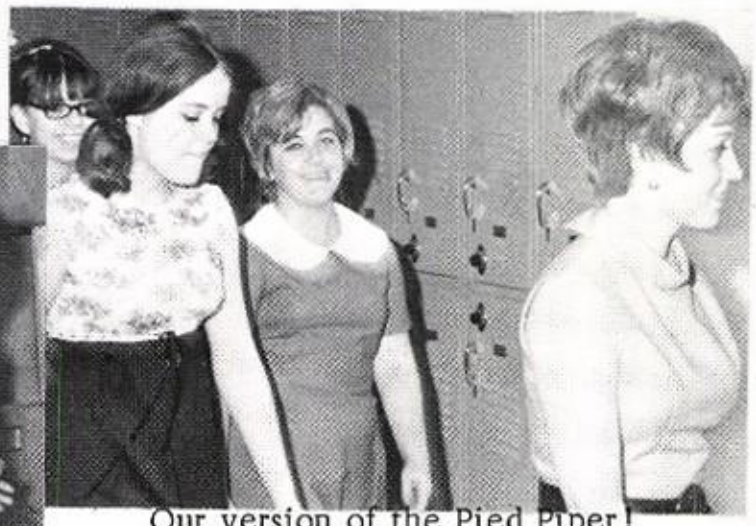
Watch out Jesse! Don't make a mistake. Don't sell Boardwalk or Park Place!

Whew! Another day!

They laughed when I sat down to play!

Maybe if I faint, I'll get to go get a drink!

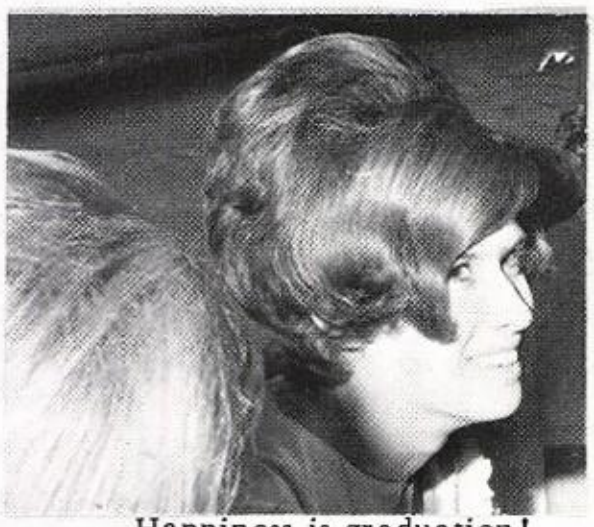
Shall we dance? I'm light on my feet. (Ha! Ha!)



Our version of the Pied Piper! (See the rats???)

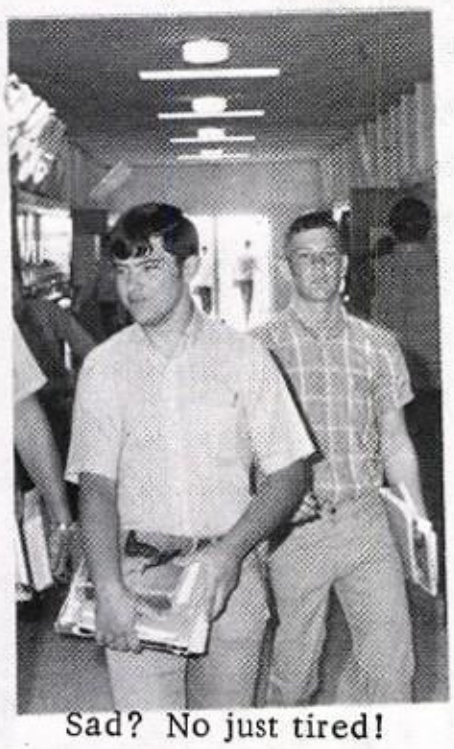
A telegram? "Your brother is ill. He's been bitten by a Possum???"

I play the piano, so why not the tape recorder?

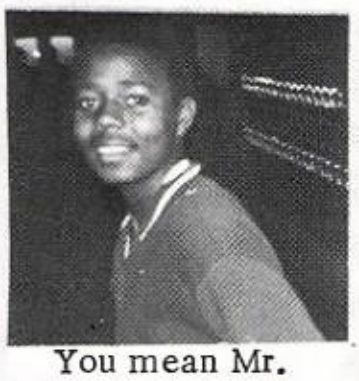


Happiness is graduation!

That locker's worse than a pack-rat's den

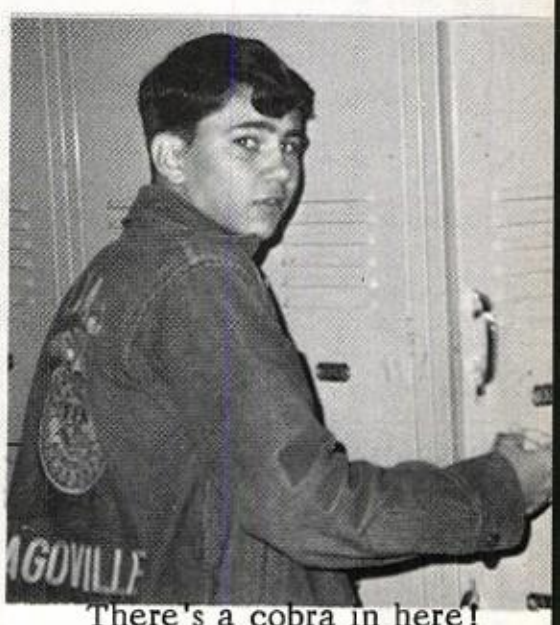


Sad? No just tired!



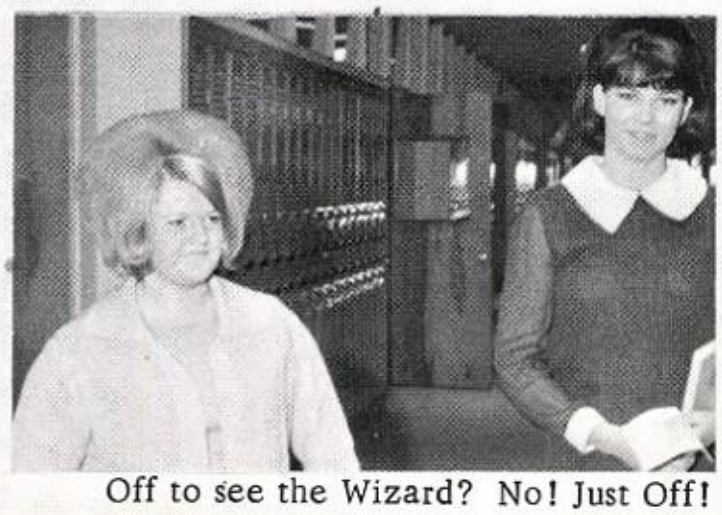
You mean Mr. Henry's not here today???

True cheerfulness!!!



There's a cobra in here!

Gary studies "Flower Power!"



Off to see the Wizard? No! Just Off!
